PARTY HARMONY

This week Democrats of Virginia are meeting in Richmond to adopt a suggested national platform and urge the selection of Harry Flood Byrd as the presidential nominee of the party.

As all eyes are now turning toward Chicago where the national conventions of both parties are soon to be held, this paper suggests that Democracy make a great bid for party harmony as the most important need of the hour.

Just one hundred years ago, May 21, 1832, the Democratic party had its first national convention. It was in Baltimore at the Athenaeum. General Robert Lucas was chairman. Andrew Jackson had already been elected president by the people, and the procedure now discarded. By Baltimore only one ballot was needed to select the vice-presidential nominee, Martin Van Buren. Under complete party harmony, the convention adjourned the second day, with bare mention of a party platform. Jackson and Van Buren were successful at the polls in November.

It would be a splendid way to commemorate the one-hundredth anniversary of that convention, by nominating a candidate who can lead the party to another victory under complete party harmony.

Who is that candidate? None other than Harry Flood Byrd, of Virginia. He is the one man in the party who can enlist the enthusiastic support of all elements of the party. He is the one man who has been successful in the past, and who is now leading the party to a great victory. He is the one man who has been successful in the past, and who is now leading the party to a great victory.

Comments On Current News

Darden Likely to be Lankford's

Colgate W. Darden, Jr.,

collegiate member of the House of Delegates from the Second District is likely to oppose Congressman Menchus Lankford, Republican incumbent, in this November's election, it was recently announced. Congressman Lankford, who is the only Republican Representative in the South, is very popular in the House of Representatives. His many friends in Norfolk realize that "Mac" as he is known, has won a great victory in an effort to help the great Hampton Roads and the Naval base there.

U. S. and England to Hold Trade Meeting

The United States has accepted the invitation of Great Britain to attend a trade meeting for the purpose of stabilizing world commodity prices, it was recently announced from Washington. We hope that some solution can be reached with England off the gold standard. The meeting is being held in London, and is being attended by a party of thirty-five per cent. It is expected that the meeting will result in some definite understanding. Perhaps Mr. Mellon, standing for the president, will be able to reach some agreement with the British government. The meeting is being held in London, and is being attended by a party of thirty-five per cent. It is expected that the meeting will result in some definite understanding.

Supreme Court Refuses To Review Capone Case

By refusing to review its recent decision, in upholding the Illinois Federal Court, which sentenced Al Capone to eleven years for income tax irregularities, the doors of Atlanta Penitentiary were closed upon the backs of "America's Public Enemy Number One."

State Has Boomed

Richmond, June 8.—From an industrial position of relative unimportance Virginia has during the past decade become one of the leading states of the South. The state has been successful in the past, and who is now leading the party to a great victory. He is the one man who has been successful in the past, and who is now leading the party to a great victory.

Review Year's Work At Local High School

Robert E. Lee Chapter Chats (By Billy Hubbard)

As July 1 is the end of our fiscal year, it is only proper that the Robert E. Lee Chapter summarize its year's work. The Future Farmers of America is a national organization of students of Vocational Agriculture. This organization was incorporated under the laws of Virginia in 1928, and now has a membership of 60,000 in the United States and Hawaii. Our chapter is entered into both state and National contests, among a selected few from the state of Virginia. We have 52 boys in our chapter and our membership dues are 100% paid.

A summary of our work for the year 1931-32 is as follows: 242 acres of crops planted; 65 domestic animals cared for; 900 fowls raised; 1500 eggs incubated; 600 baby chicks bought and raised; 249 supplementary jobs were carried out in conjunction with the school.

Jobs completed in our Agriculture workshop: Things built or made: Self feeders, Singletrees, Handles, Farm Rakes, Picture frames, Feeding troughs, Stables.

Forge Work

Horse shoes, Drag teeth and play toys sharpened. Concrete work on fish pool, built for Home Economic Department.

Repair Jobs

Repairing all farm machinery, repairing windows in hooses, putting handles in hooses.

F. F. A. Activities

1. Father and Son Banquet and dedication of our new Agriculture building, March 24, 1932. 105 persons attended. 2. Three leading students to be sent to the rally at Blacksburg, June 14-17. 3. Bean and Lepesceda seed and lime were bought cooperatively. 4. We have cooperated with nearby chapters in giving three radio program, in fair exhibits, judging contests, and in our club federation of seven local chapters.
